

Empowering Tomorrow's Leaders: MCBS Hosts Hay Al Shurooq International School

MCBS welcomed students from Hay Al Shurooq International School, reinforcing our commitment to community engagement and knowledge sharing. This visit aligns with our mission to extend educational value beyond our campus and nurture future leaders.

Dr. Said Al Kitani kicked off the visit with an introduction to MCBS and the diverse programs we offer. Dr. Aisha Al Araimi provided insights into the field of Human Resources, while Dr. Hana Al Balushi explained key concepts of Marketing. Dr. Hisham Madi delved into the world of finance, offering valuable knowledge on the subject. Additionally, Mr. Abdullah Al Shuali joined the sessions, further enlightening the visiting students with more information about MCBS and its offerings.

This visit reflects our commitment to strengthening ties with local educational institutions and fostering the development of future leaders. We look forward to more such engagements that inspire and empower the next generation, helping them shape their academic and professional journeys.
